

A SHIP IS HEADING FOR SHORE, CARRYING PRISONERS KING MINOS HAD ORDERED FROM ATHENS TO FEED HIS SON, THE MINOTAUR!

HA!
HA!
HA!

KING MINOS IS WAITING FOR HIS PRISONERS, WITH A WIDE GRIN ON HIS FACE.

EXEPT... THEY DID NOT KNOW THEY WERE PRISONERS.

THE NEXT MORNING

PRISONER 1#

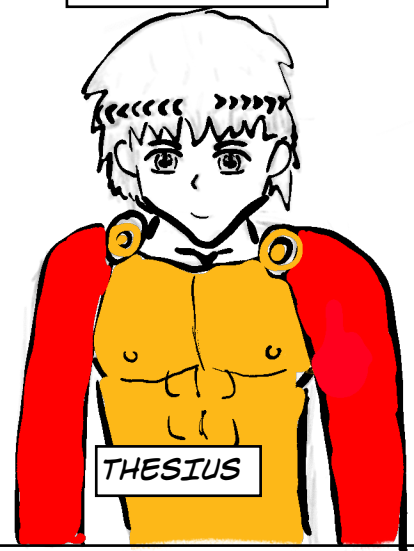

IGNATIUS

PRISONER 2#

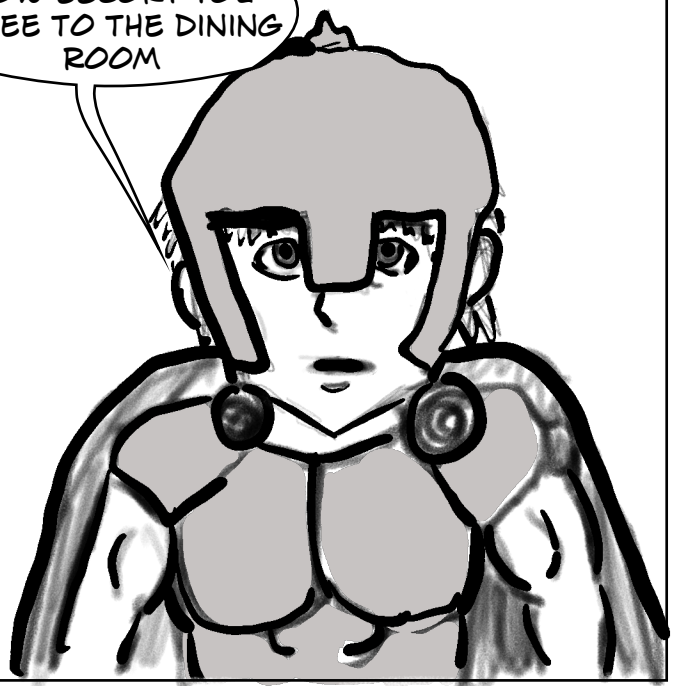

DYSONUS

PRISONER 3#

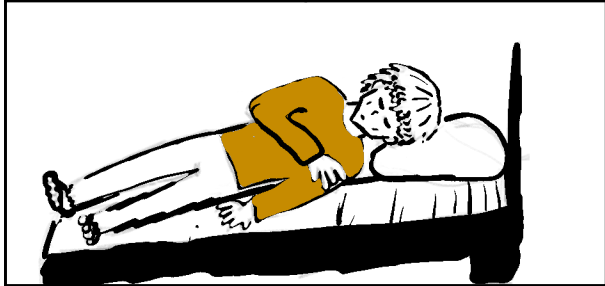

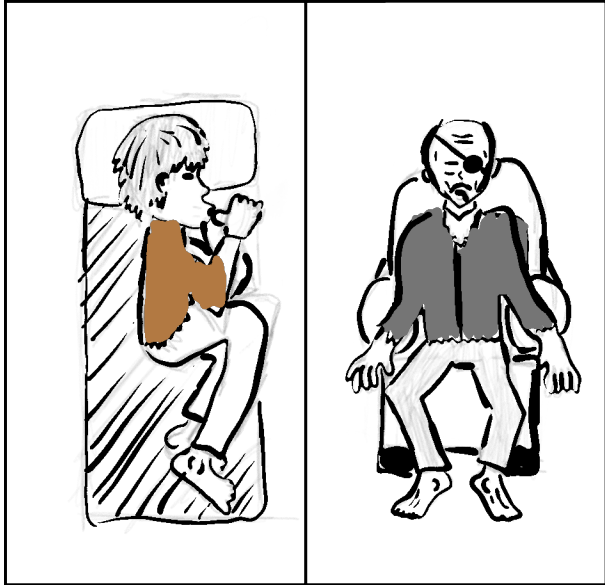

THESIUS

I WILL NOW ESCORT YOU
THREE TO THE DINING ROOM

AFTER FEASTING ON MEAT AND GRAPES, THE GUARDS LED THEM TO THEIR BEDROOMS.

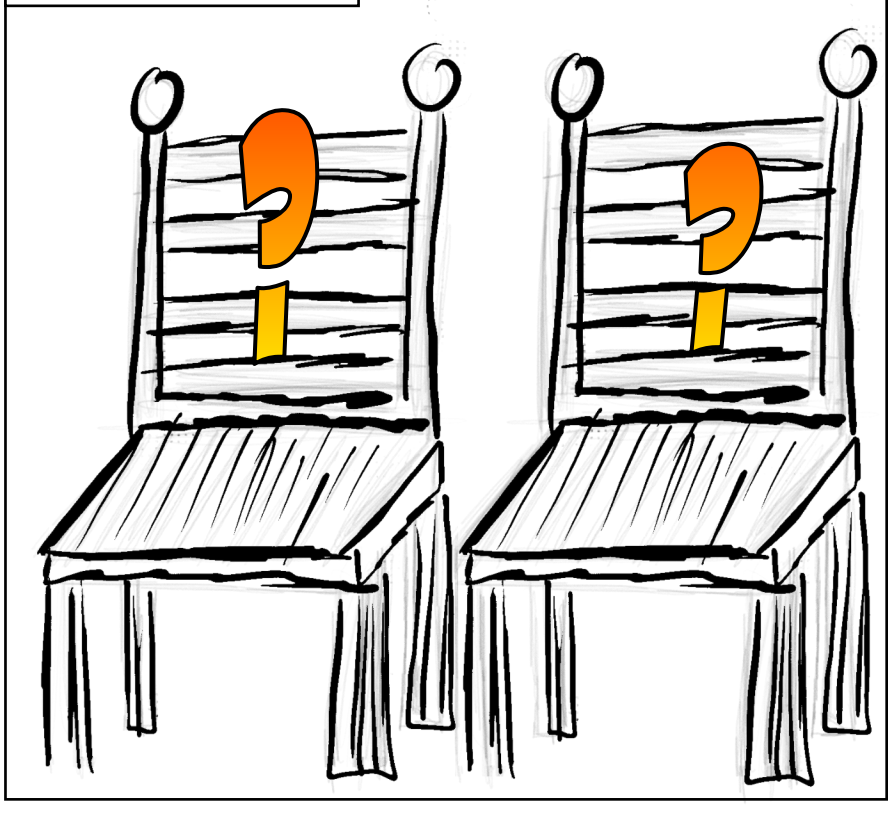

AS THESIUS WAS EATING HIS BREAKFAST THE FOLLOWING MORNING, HE NOTICED THAT IGNATIUS WAS NOT THERE AT THE TABLE

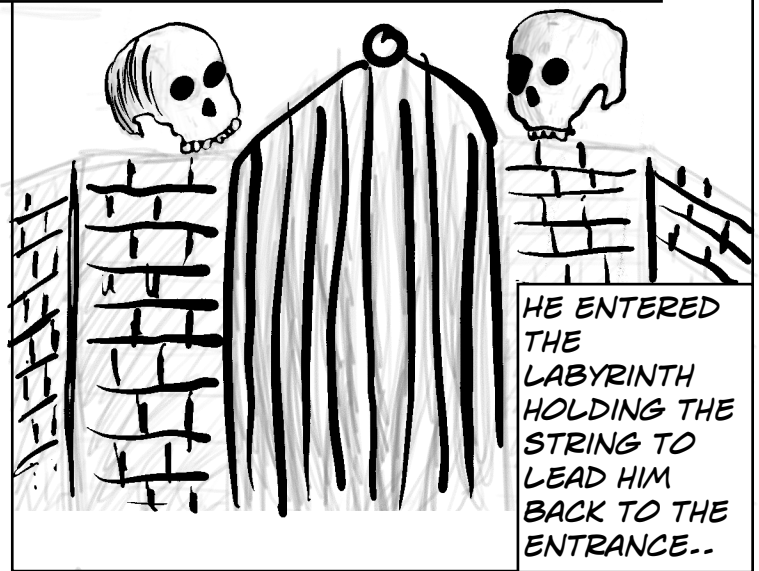

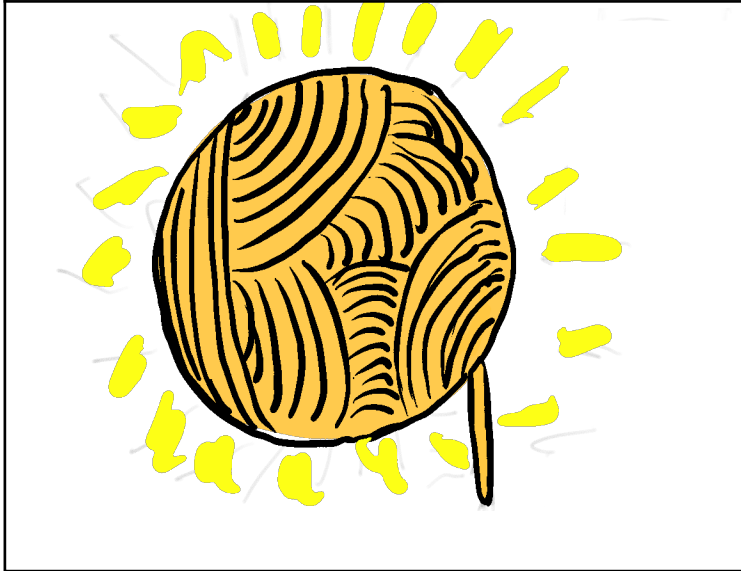

WHEN THESIUS WENT TO BED, IGNATIUS HAD STILL NOT RETURNED.

THE NEXT MORNING IGNATIUS HAD STILL NOT RETURNED... AND DIONSUS WAS GONE TO.

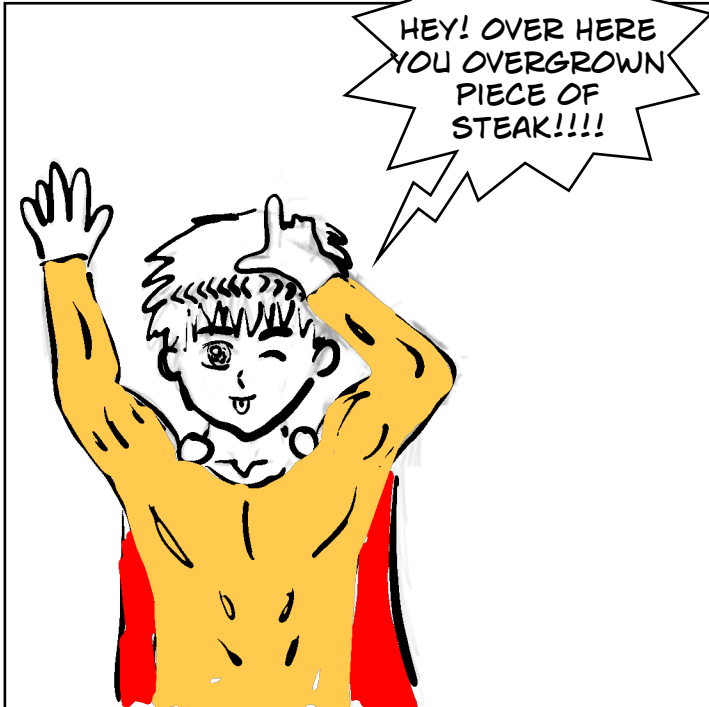

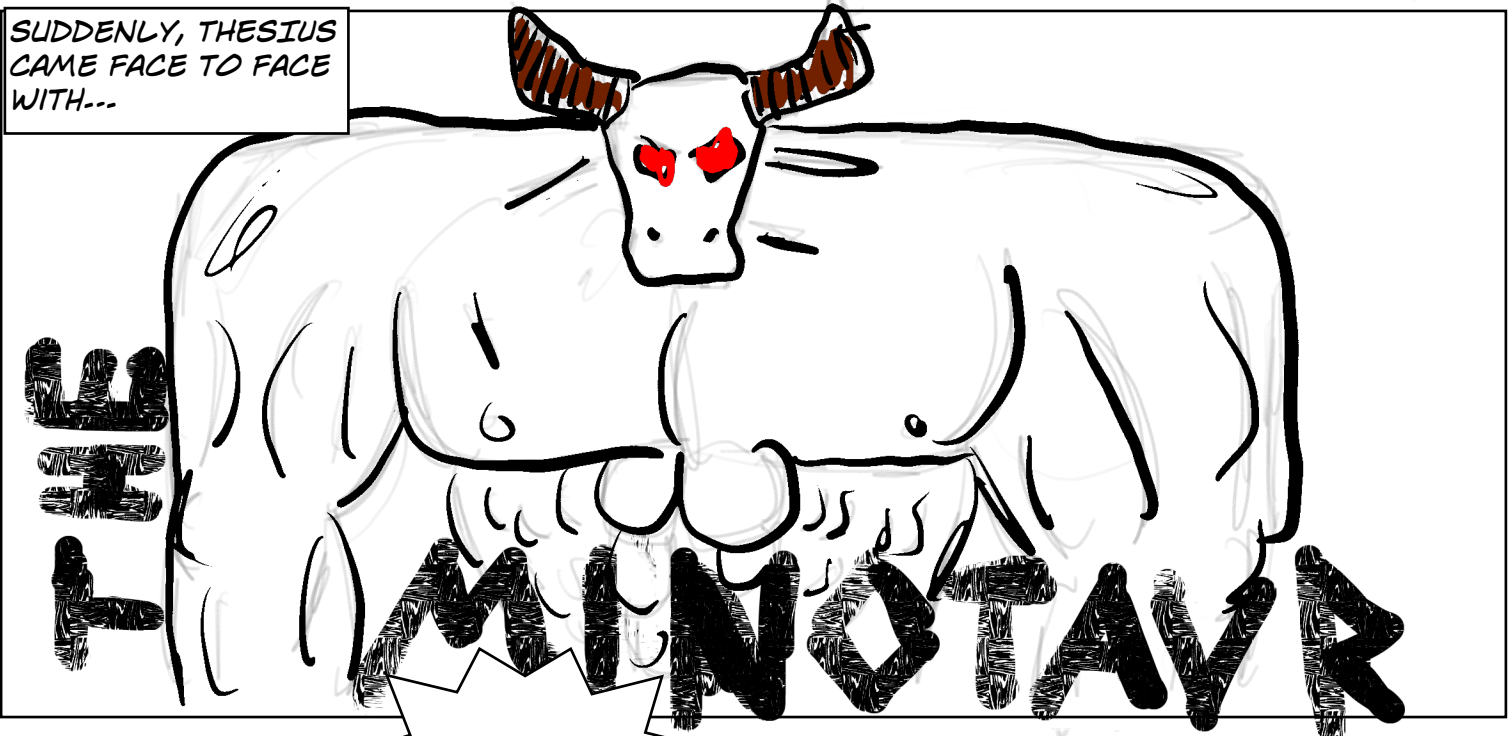

AT THE BREAKFAST THESEUS HAD MET THE KING'S DAUGHTER, ARIADNE, AND SHE TOLD HIM ABOUT THE MINOTAUR. THEN SHE GAVE HIM A BALL OF GOLDEN THREAD TO HELP HIM GET OUT OF THE LABYRINTH THAT HE WAS TO GO INTO TO SLAY THE MINOTAUR. IN RETURN, THESEUS SAID THAT HE WOULD TAKE ARIADNE WITH HIM WHEN HE ESCAPED.

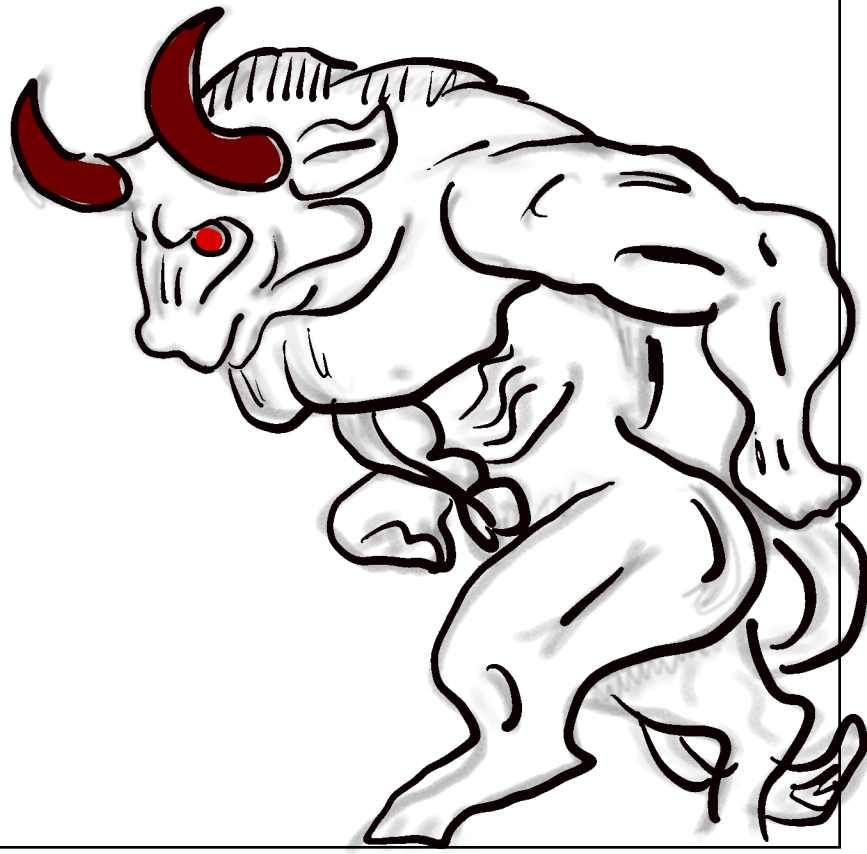

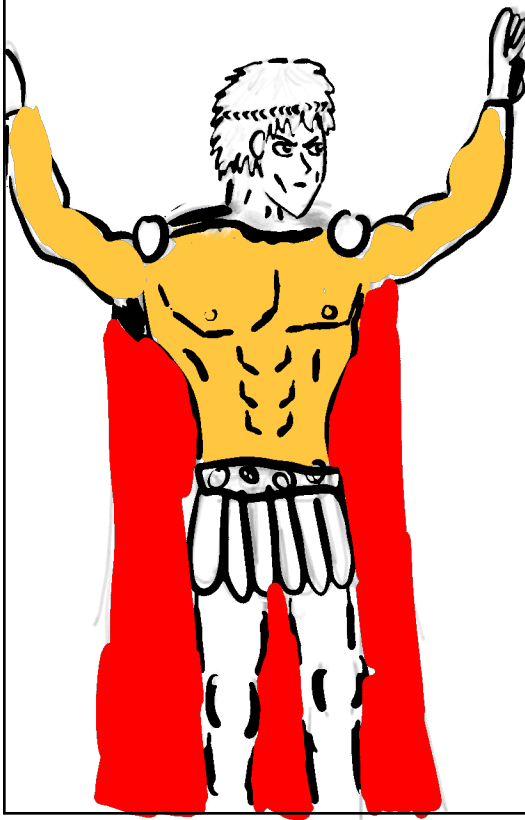

HE ENTERED THE LABYRINTH HOLDING THE STRING TO LEAD HIM BACK TO THE ENTRANCE..

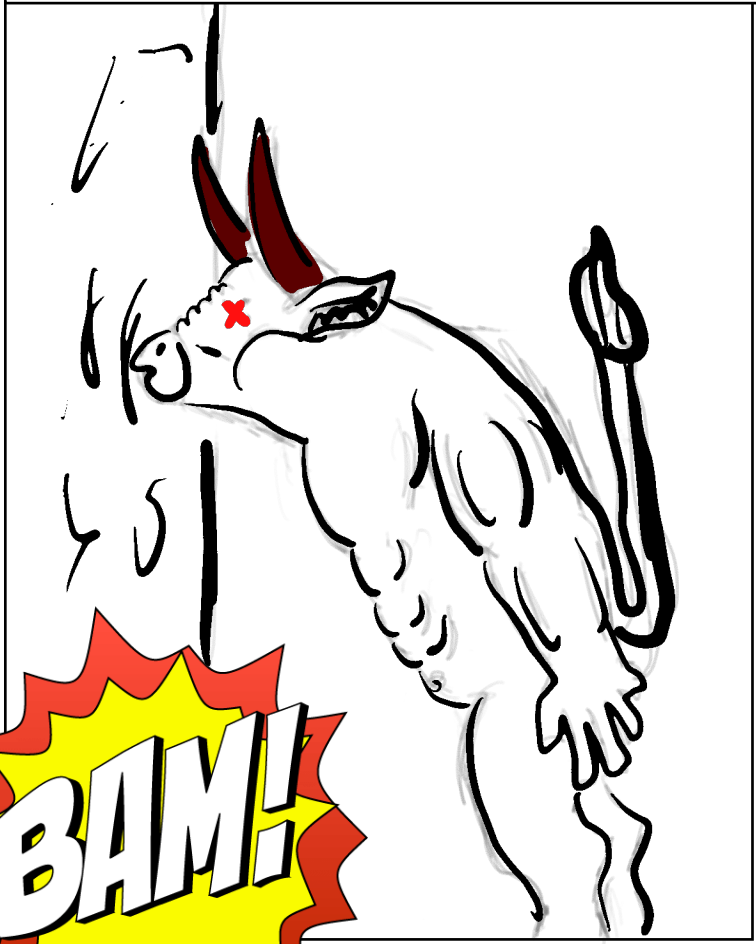

SUDDENLY, THESEUS CAME FACE TO FACE WITH...

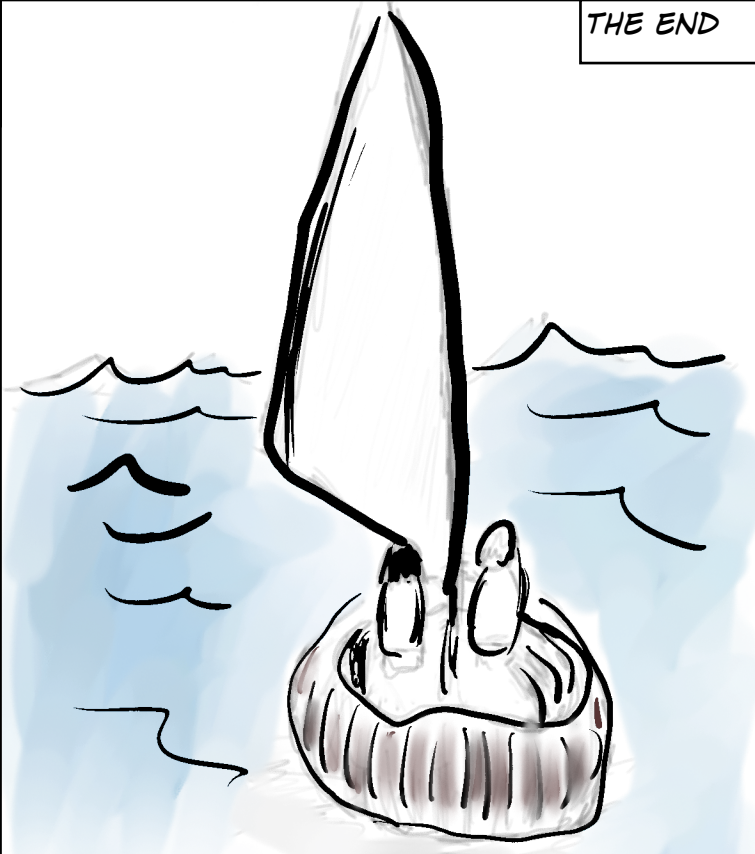

THE MINOTAUR CHARGED AT THESIUS, WITH ITS HEAD LOCKED DOWN AND HIS HOOVES CLOPPING AGAINST THE FLOOR.

SWIFTLY AND DANGEROUSLY, THESIUS SIDESTEPED AND THE MINOTAUR SMASHED INTO THE WALL, INSTANTLY FALLING DEAD.

THE END

THESIUS USED THE GOLDEN THREAD TO LEAD HIMSELF OUT OF THE MAZE WHERE ARIADNE WAS WAITING. THEN THE TWO OF THEM SAILED AWAY
